sorry for striking a nerve joejjj, i just think your a bad moderator basically your force RG on me was because i shot a couple of soldiers with my sakura while in your base, running back for cover into tunnels, then i find you there running in a straight line towards field, i headshot u and u go drama mode on me lol, as if i did something that was bullshit or impossible

Wow you force me to recall the game. You could not have been in the base, I was in the air. I know you consider me that. Get RG and be done with it. There were many others that consider what you were doing that game bogus. Struck no nerve here but you could have probably gotten your what you wanted if you hadn't decided to be the dick you always are.

NLS first off the forcerg happened a ways back we no longer FRG anyone. And the policy at this point is that if you were forced the forcerg remains.
Hell you were in the game and telling me you were dying in places you couldn't be hit.

!forcerg sticks until !forcescripts (or w/e the code will be) is in action. then some players may get !unforcerg.

i got 4.0 but i guess it doesnt mean anything then since n00bstories is not a 4.0 server, but RG matters even less for all i know... pretty sure some people ingame accused me of RGH, guess what RGH actually stands for?
